

FRIDAY, MARCH 7TH
4:00 PM – 6:00 PM

ROBINSON HALL LOWER LIBRARY
Harvard Yard, Cambridge, MA 02138

SOUTH ASIA SEMINAR:
HOW TO SPEAK ABOUT THE NORTH INDIAN ASHRAF
TO AN AUDIENCE OF HISTORIANS OF WESTERN EUROPE

BY

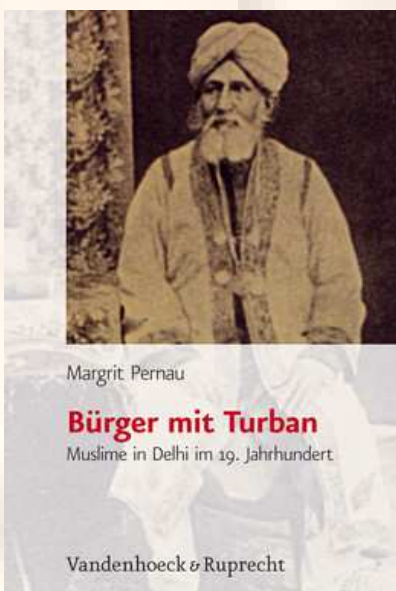

MARGRIT PERNAU

RESEARCH FELLOW, SOUTH ASIA INSTITUTE, UNIVERSITY OF HEIDELBERG

CHAired BY

SUGATA BOSE

GARDINER PROFESSOR OF HISTORY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY

About the Speaker

Margrit Pernau has studied Indian and European history as well as public law at the University of Heidelberg (Germany). She is affiliated to the South Asia Institute, Heidelberg, as a research Fellow. At present she is engaged in research on identity formation and social structure of the Muslim community in Old Delhi in the Nineteenth century.